LINKING UP THE EMPIRE BY AEROPLANE

Great Britain's Lead in Development

INDUSTRY WHICH NOW
EMPLOYS 30,000
WORKPEOPLE

The announcement from Sydney, that a company has registered for the purpose of tendering for the air service between the Australian coast and Singapore draws attention to the fact that a new link is about to be forged in completion of the chain of Empire air services.

The history of civil aviation in the United Kingdom is, in effect, the history of the development of the air routes of the Empire, states the Financial Times in a review of the aircraft industry.

While progress in British aviation at home has not been neglected, a number of factors in combination have operated to give the movement its outward direction—the geographical situation of the country, its position as the centre of the Empire, the shortness of interior distances, and the capacity of existing rail, road and coastwise services to meet most home requirements for passenger and merchandise traffic.

The vital need that Great Britain should take the lead in establishing the air-routes of the Empire and the obvious impossibility of such a task being carried to success from the beginning on ordinary commercial lines led to the appointment of a Government Committee in 1923, to advise on the best method of subsidising air transport in the future. The recommendation was that a single organisation should be created, secured with a privileged position in regard to subsidy for a term of years.

Combination of Four

So it was that Imperial Airways came into being as a combination of the four companies then in existence—Handley-Page Transport, Instone Air Line, Daimler Airways and British Marine Air Navigation.

The task set before Imperial Airways was to develop the Empire air routes and to make air transport a self-supporting industry as soon as possible, and in order to ensure steady progress and efficiency the subsidy paid by the Government was fixed on a diminishing scale.

Taking 1925 as the first in its effective history, the progress towards making civil aviation a commercial proposition has been truly remarkable. It was early discovered that small-scale operation with small fleet units could never be made profitable, and the terms of the original agreement with the Government were altered to enable developments to proceed on bolder lines.

The success of this policy is illustrated by a comparison of the cost of providing a "capacity ton mile" (capacity of the aircraft multiplied by the mileage flown) on the European services. Taking 1925 as 100, the figure was down to 49.6 in 1932. In the same period the percentage of scheduled services cancelled on account of weather and other reasons fell from 21 to 2.99.

VISCOUNT SAITO'S CABINET

JAPAN PREPARING FOR NEW ADMINISTRATION

Tokyo, Mar. 22.—Political circles here have started their activities in connection with a successor to Viscount M. Saito as Premier, following the unexpected interview between the Premier and Mr. K. Takahashi, the Finance Minister, this morning.

In December last, Mr. Takahashi, at the request of the Premier, asked Mr. K. Suzuki, president of the Seiyukai, the majority party, for his support of the Government during the 64th session of the Diet on certain conditions, it was reported then. With the Diet session to be closed within a week, Seiyukai leaders anticipate a change of the political situation in the near future. It is said that Mr. Takahashi asked the Premier's opinion during today's interview as to the attitude of the Government.

A rumour that the Finance Minister advised the Premier to offer the general resignation of the Cabinet following the close of the Diet session was widespread to-day. (Continued at foot of next Column)

U.S. MAY LODGE PROTEST

Japan's Retention of Mandated Islands

TO ACT IN UNISON WITH LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Washington, March 22.—It was indicated in high quarters to-day that the United States may be expected to enter a vigorous protest against Japan's asserted right to hold the mandated islands in the South Seas after her withdrawal from the League of Nations.

The protest will, it was said in these quarters, be withheld for a time as it would be untimely to announce any policy at present. It was pointed out in circles close to the Administration that the United States has at times insisted upon the right to share in the disposition of all former German colonies by virtue of the joint victory of the Allied armies in the World War.

The State Department which has been following the situation closely was reported to-day to be prepared to act in harmony with the League of Nations and also, individually, because the matter of the mandates was first announced by the late president, speaking on behalf of the Allies six days prior to the Armistice, invited the Germans to lay down their arms on certain stated conditions, which were contained in the Wilson Fourteen Points. Point five of that declaration referred to the agreement of the Allies to adjust all colonial claims with an open mind.

League the Distributing Agent.

While the United States has always held that the colonial possessions of Germany were ceded to the Allies and not to the League, it is understood that the Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, in his protest will recognise that the League was the distributing agent and that United States approved the mandate to Japan although approval was withheld until the Washington Conference in 1922. At that time, the United States accepted Japan's position as a mandatory.

It was said to-day that Mr. Hull holds that America's acceptance of Japan's position did not depend on whether Japan remained in the League of Nations.

It was also reported that the Administration would be quite satisfied if the mandates are returned to the League but experts have pointed out that the Covenant, while providing for the well-being of the mandates, did not provide for their return to the League. This would present an intricate legal problem, it was said to-day.

Informed persons said, however, that the United States would prefer that the mandates should be returned to the League as the best solution under the circumstances.

It was further pointed out in the American-Japanese treaty of 1922, it was expressly stated that there should be no modification of the mandate unless the United States gave assent.

America's Concern.

In 1921 Mr. Bainbridge Colby, then Secretary of State, said that the United States had an equal concern and an inseparable interest, as well as an equal voice, in the disposition of Germany's overseas possessions.

The approval of the mandate, delayed as it was, is considered by international authorities as virtually compelling the United States to act in closest union with the League in setting the matter. It is predicted that the United States would approve the League's action in the matter and give it additional strength by an individual protest to Japan.

The State Department has already communicated with the League on the matter, it was said, but decided not to make a formal protest at present.

The conditions of America's acceptance of the mandate to Japan were conditional, especially relating to fortifications. Should Japan withdraw from the League and thereafter fortify any of the mandated islands, the treaty stipulations would be violated.

It is believed that Mr. Norman Davis, special U.S. Ambassador, will discuss the situation at length with League members before any American protest is made.

This drew much attention from other political parties.

Viscount Saito decided to interview with Baron F. Yamamoto, the Home Minister, who has been ill for some time, and other Cabinet Ministers, shortly, before deciding the final attitude of the Cabinet as a whole, it was learned. (United Press)

FIVE STAR FINAL

STRONG HIT FANTASTIC
STORY OF JOURNALISM

Five Star Final, showing at the Queen's Theatre is a grim and vivid story of American Yellow Press methods. It tells of a newspaper whose proprietor and departmental chiefs take up the story of a twenty-year-old murder, and play up the facts that the woman who committed the crime is now a charming and respected member of local society, and her daughter is on the eve of a brilliant match.

The glare of publicity is thrown on the household, and the "murders" of a score of years ago in her husband commits suicide and her daughter's fiancé is disinherited, for refusing to call off the marriage; the girl goes round to shoot the editor and proprietor, but is just prevented in time. The wretched editor resigns—he has had conscience about the whole matter, and there the film ends. It is not meant for babes, but it is extremely good entertainment.

We do not know whether this sort of thing goes on in America, or is merely Hollywood imagination. If a newspaper in the British Empire tried that kind of game it would be quickly downed. Other papers would begin the process, probably the populace would wreck the office, and no doubt a British jury would award damages sufficient, not to "compensate" the victims but to bankrupt the offenders. Five Star Final is, in fact, a mere fantasy of journalism—a warning if you like, of what might happen. It is always a difficult task to judge where publicity has to be given, even if it means personal suffering, but the gratuitous torturing of individuals for the sake of a "stunt," is not a danger that has any substance where British institutions prevail.

R.B.

Mention must also be made of Graham Scutten as the arch criminal Jonathan Small and Miles Malleon as a timid little man who is caught up in the whirlpool of events.

"SIGN OF FOUR"

SHERLOCK HOLMES THRILLER FOR KING'S THEATRE

Those lovers of thrilling film drama who like their thrills tempered with logical action and a feasible story should not miss the Associated Radio Pictures "The Sign of Four" which will be shown at the King's Theatre on Thursday. This is the most famous of the Sherlock Holmes stories by that master of detective yarns Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Not only is it the most famous but, from the point of view of screen material, his best. For "The Sign of Four" bristles with thrilling action as soon as the famous Baker Street criminologist is brought into the case. In fact the film ends with a breath-taking "free-for-all" against the grim background of the Thames waterfront. This finely staged and vigorously played scene is one of the finest "battles between the law and the underworld seen on the screen.

As to feasibility of story, Conan Doyle was too able a craftsman for anyone to find flaws in the structure or in the deductions which lead Sherlock Holmes on to the trick of the sinister Jonathan Small. As the film follows the original story very closely the same can be said of the screen version. Arthur Wontner plays the part of Sherlock Holmes. This well-known stage and screen star is the finest possible choice for this role, for he has without doubt, played the role more times and more successfully than any other actor of stage or screen. His features, his voice and his mannerisms are exactly those of the Sherlock Holmes described by his originator, Conan Doyle, in his many novels.

Although obviously the role of Sherlock Holmes is the most important, he cannot play alone, and the director, Graham Cutts was particularly happy in his choice of Ian Hunter as the stolid but good-hearted Dr. Watson and Isla Byvan who makes a particularly appealing heroine who seeks the assistance Holmes and ends by marrying the worthy Doctor.

GAYNOR-FARRELL AGAIN
CO-STARRED

"TESS OF THE STORM COUNTRY"

Local cinema goers must make it a point to see the current picture at the King's Theatre in which Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are again co-starred. This is probably the last time that these two stars will be seen in the same picture and those who remember the many screen romances produced with these two in the leading roles, will certainly wish to see their last picture together.

Some of the best song hits of recent times have been from pictures in which Gaynor and Farrell have taken the leading parts, but in "Tess" there are no song hits. Instead, the producers depend entirely on the drama and romance in the story and it is difficult to say whether this picture is not really the best that this romantic couple has so far produced. One misses the songs, but in such a delightfully human story as "Tess of the Storm Country" songs would be entirely out of place. Janet Gaynor as the daughter of a sea-captain and Charles Farrell as the son of a millionaire (how romantic it all sounds) are thrown together by a stroke of fortune and though they ultimately straighten

JEAN HARLOW'S FLANNEL NIGHTIES

IN "THREE WISE GIRLS"

Imagine Jean Harlow in an old-fashioned flannel nightgown! Visualize Jean in cotton bloomers!

If your imagination doesn't stretch that far, see "Three Wise Girls," the Columbia film showing at the Queen's Theatre on Thursday next.

"Three Wise Girls" presents the platinum-haired beauty as a modest small-town girl, who isn't up to all of the tricks of her metropolitan sisters. Jean not only wears flannel nighties but lisle hose and "sensible" shoes. She's an old-fashioned girl with old-fashioned ideas—a far cry from the slithering gangster's moll Jean has portrayed in many other pictures.

Later in the course of "Three Wise Girls" Jean goes to the big city and gets a job as mannequin in an elegant modiste's shop. There she learns the value of sheer silk lingerie and close-fitting gowns. The new Columbia picture also has Mac Clarke, Walter Byron, Marie Prevost, Natalie Moorhead, Andy Devine and Jameson Thomas in important roles, under the direction of William Beaudine.

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 2.

The Golden Text was: "Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?" (Jer. 2: 5.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." (John 1: 1-3.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the Gospel of John, it is declared that all things were made through the Word of God, and without Him (the logos, or word) was not anything made that was made." "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make;—hence its unreality." (P. 525.)

NIGHT STAR STILL UNBEATEN

WINS AUSTRALIAN EVENT IN SPITE OF TOP WEIGHT: WOODLAND STAG SECOND

NAVY HALL AND FLYING BOY PAY BIG DIVIDENDS

(BY "MORNING DEW")

SATURDAY'S RACING AMPLY BORE OUT MY PREDICTION THAT LIGHT WEIGHTS WOULD HAVE A GOOD DAY AND WITH THE EXCEPTION OF NIGHT STAR (WHO WAS SELECTED TO WIN THE FIRST RACE) THE LIGHT WEIGHTS CAME IN ONE AFTER ANOTHER IN REGULAR SUCCESSION.

MERMAID WON THE "B" CLASS AUSTRALIAN EVENT FROM LUCY GLITTERS AND EVENING STAR. MERMAID CARRIED THE VERY LIGHT IMPOST OF 137 POUNDS.

The biggest dividend of the day was paid by Navy Hall, ridden by Mr. A. M. L. Soares, who returned his supporters $155 for a win. The pony won the "B" Class event over six furlongs and accounted for a classy lot, winning in 1.39.3 which is very good time indeed.

Flying Boy, ridden by the Champion jockey certainly gave his supporters a big thrill when he came home to pay $111 for a win, the dividend being the biggest paid on anything ridden by Mr. Frost since he won the Valleys with The Grouse three years ago.

From Saturday's running, it is obvious that Night Star is too good for the rest of the Australian ponies and it looks as though the next time he faces the starter, he will have to carry a tremendous weight.

The last race of the day provided a double dead heat, King Salmon and Amoy tying for first place while a length behind Orlando and Warrington tied for second place. It was a thrilling finish and proved a suitable finale to a day full of surprises—some welcome and some otherwise.

DEAD HEAT IN LAST RACE

CANTERBURY PARK H'CAP.

Night Star was an odds on favourite for the first race and although the pony drew the last position in a field of seven the result was obvious as soon as the gate went up for Pan sent him out early on and before the first quarter mile was over he was lapping comfortably ahead of the field. Wotin and Ngtuk made a big effort to draw near, but without avail. Portia came up with the lead on the bend into the straight, but fell back again, while the old stalwart, Woodland Stag, could not manage the earlier pace but came along beautifully in the straight to share second place with Portia, the two of them being a little more than a couple of lengths behind the favourite.

Spotted Butterfly.

This pony is certainly earning a place in the "B" Class and will no doubt be promoted very soon. He accounted for a field of fifteen on Saturday and came through like a knife when asked for an effort from his jockey, Mr. Frost, who was content in the earlier part of the race to wait behind the leaders, Bistre, with his light weight surprised the field by taking second place while Alexandra Hall with Mr. Heard up had to be content with third place.

Don Wins.

Tang Man Wah had a joy ride on Don in the novices event and won just as he like in 2.07 for the mile. The nearest thing to Don was California ridden by Choy Wing Hay while Dee took third place after seeming difficult to manage in the earlier part of the race.

Flying Boy.

The public backed Hey Tor to win with Iron Grey, Jack O'Lantern and Charming Race next. Then came Black Velvet (1), Black Rock and Flying Boy while there were a few tickets on White Butterfly and seven on La Penstie.

The race proved how even things were. Hey Tor after making the most of the earlier part of the journey by leading the field, threw up the sponge on entering the straight where Iron Grey and Flying Boy fought the issue, the former tiring before the end and losing by a length to Flying Boy. White Butterfly was a good third.

Partnership Wins.

Butler, riding Philiterer rode a fine race in the Bias Bay Handicap for "E" Class ponies. He was the victim of some jamming in the start and consequently found himself at the back of the field of sixteen in a six furlong race. Nothing daunted, he steered his mount through the field and put up a glorious race in the straight, but had to go under by a neck to Partnership, while a short head behind, Frost brought along Helvellyn.

Tolo Plate.

This race for non-winning griffins over a mile and a quarter proved an easy thing for Pook Face especially as Per Se one of his biggest dangers, fared badly at the start. Per Se managed to come through the race in second place and King's Company was third.

Mermaid's Win.

The "B" Class Australian event proved to be a slow race in which Lucy Glitters led the field, but Mermaid, carrying a light weight won easily in the home straight. Evening Star was third and the favourite, But After That had to be satisfied with fourth place.

The Last Race.

The betting in the last race was the most peculiar part of the race. Warrington carrying 159 pounds was made favourite. That is not very surprising as Warrington is the Champion sub, but what puzzles me is the 608 winning tickets put on Battling Horse, a Maxco sub, which is obviously a very inferior pony, even for "D" Class. He finished nowhere.

Orlando made all the running, but was caught at the distance post by King Salmon while Amoy came along with a terrific rush at the end to dead-heat for the first place. Warrington dead-heat with Orlando for third place.

SOUND BUDGETARY POSITION

BRITISH FIGURES FOR LAST YEAR

[REUTER AND BRITISH WIRELESS.]

London, March 1. A REMARKABLY sound budgetary position is revealed by the publication to-night of the year's revenue and expenditure statistics, the total deficit of £32,270,000 including the anticipated payment of the American debt instalment.

Skilful conversion operations saved the country £30,000,000 in interest payments.

The financial year ended to-day and the returns issued by the Treasury show that revenue has amounted to £744,791,000.

Excluding the payment to the United States Government, expenditure amounted to £748,114,000.

A deficit of £3,323,000 is reached after providing £17½ millions for sinking fund.

The payment to the United States was £24,565,000, making a total deficit of £32,270,000.

No Debt Income.

As against the payment to the United States there would normally have been received, since last July, £30½ millions from allied war debts to Britain and from reparations and a further £7½ millions from Dominion war debts, the relief of debts, etc., making £38½ millions in all at current rates of exchange.

Reparations and war debt payments, however, are under arrangements made at Lausanne, suspended until the Lausanne agreement has been ratified or until a decision has been reached not to ratify that agreement. If all the payments normally due to this country since July, 1932, had been received in full, the budget would have been balanced with a surplus of £5½ millions.

The budget which made no provision for receipts or outgoings for reparations and war debts, £708,800,000 and a total expenditure, including a provision for the sinking fund of £32½ millions of £760,000,000.

Income Tax Dows.

Income tax and surtax yielded £312,200,000 which is £13½ millions less than estimated. Estate duties yielded £68 millions, which was one million more than the estimate.

On the expenditure side the fixed debt charges were fixed for the year at £278 millions for interest and management of the debt and £23½ millions for the sinking fund.

The payment to the United States is shown in the return as separate and single item within the year's budget expenditure.

This is done to mark its special character, for in making the payment the Government reserved the right to treat the whole sum as a capital payment, of which account should be taken in any final settlement.

Interest and Sinking Fund.

Excluding the payment to the United States Government, payments from the fixed debt charge for interest etc., have amounted to £288½ millions and for the sinking fund to £17½ millions.

An additional sum of £2,555,000 representing interest on savings certificates has been met from borrowed money.

The reduction in the sinking fund payments below the amount anticipated in the budget is due to the effect of the rise in price of gilt-edged securities, following the war loan conversion operation, on statutory and contractual sinking fund requirements.

The budget estimate for the supply was £447,204,000. Since then supplementary estimates have been presented amounting to £21,614,000. Actual expenditure amounted to £458½ millions representing a saving of £10½ millions.

Position Considered Satisfactory. [BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Rugby, April 1. The figures of the nation's balance sheet for the financial year which ended last night are generally considered highly satisfactory in view of the great difficulties of last year.

If the war debt transactions had not vitiated the Chancellor of the Exchequer's calculations, his Budget would have resulted in a surplus of £5½ millions.

A deficit of less than £3½ millions was reached after providing £17½ millions for a sinking fund.

Payment to the United States was nearly £25 millions, this amount being excluded from the Budget calculations. As against this payment to the United States, Britain would normally have received, since last July, £30½ millions from allied war debts and from reparations together with other sums connected with the war debt question, making a total of £37½ millions at current rates of exchange.

Treasury returns had little effect this morning upon gilt-edged securities which remained steady with war loan 2½ per cent. at 101 1/16.

Sterling on New York opened at 3.49.

BOYCOTT OF JEWS STARTS

NAZI PICKETS TAKE UP POSITIONS

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, April 1. THE Nazi boycott was enforced at 10 a.m. to-day. Most of the Jewish shops have already closed, and the remainder will soon put up their shutters, for it is obviously impossible for them to expect customers.

The beginning of the boycott was the signal for uniformed Nazi pickets to take up positions outside all Jewish establishments, whether open or closed.

Their presence, which is reinforced by posters calling on the people to defend themselves and to refuse to buy from the Jews, is sufficient to intimidate any would be shoppers.

Leaders May be Unable to Check Boycott.

BERLIN, April 1. The suspension of the boycott is regarded by disinterested parties here as a recognition of the undesirable economic dislocation which would follow, and this viewpoint was urged by Nazi members of the Cabinet.

Many people consider the whole campaign not so much as an act of defence against foreign "atrocity" propaganda as an attempt to appease disappointed Nazi extremists who have been incited to anti-Semitism for years.

It is doubted, however, whether the policy of appeasement will be successful. Jewish circles fear that once the boycott is started Nazi leaders will not be able to hold their followers in check to-morrow evening.

Herr Goebbels' speech has not allayed this anxiety.

Placards Posted.

Meanwhile preparations for the boycott are continuing, and in order that foreigners may see the seriousness of the position, placards in ungrammatical English proclaiming: "Germans defend yourself against Jewish atrocity propaganda" will be posted.

Dr. Goebbels' Threat.

BERLIN, April 1. It is announced that the anti-Jewish boycott will begin at ten o'clock this morning, but will be called off this evening until April 5.

In announcing the decision, Dr. Goebbels, the Minister of Propaganda, explained that there has been a noticeable decline of the "atrocity campaign" abroad, which proved the success of the boycott threat.

Dr. Goebbels also declared that the improved situation proved that German Jewry has absolute power to limit or stop the campaign abroad.

The boycott will be resumed at 10 a.m. on April 5 unless the atrocity campaign ceases before then.

"If the boycott has to be resumed on April 5, it will be resumed in a manner calculated to destroy German Jewry," declared Herr Goebbels, in a broadcast address last night.

"We want," he said, "to live in peace with the world. We want to work. We do not want to make enemies unnecessarily."

FIDUCIARY ISSUE REVERTS TO NORMAL

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Rugby, April 1. The Treasury authority under which the bank of England was empowered to issue an additional £15 million of notes, not covered by gold, expired last night and as the bank did not ask for a renewal of the authority the fiduciary issue reverts to the normal statutory amount of £260 millions.

The increase to £275 millions dates from September, 1931, when the gold standard was suspended.

The reason for the absence of action on the part of the bank is to be found in its recent big acquisitions of gold. Since January, when the present influx of gold began the bank has acquired nearly £64 millions of gold. The additional gold acquired has increased the metal cover for the note issue and renders an increase in confidence to cover unnecessary.

The action arose from paragraphs published in connection with an erroneous report of Mr. Cummins' death.

OPENING OF HOLY YEAR

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY AT ST. PETER'S

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

VATICAN CITY, April 1. THE solemn opening of the Holy Year, commemorating the Crucifixion, was to-day carried out by His Holiness the Pope in an atmosphere of mediaeval splendour, surrounded by Cardinals, Prelates, Ambassadors and Ministers accredited to his Court.

Striking three times with a golden hammer on the Holy Door of Saint Peter's, the Pope, attired in a gorgeous mantle of white silk and gold, demanded admission to the Church, while the bells of Saint Peter's pealed the holiday.

Slowly the door began to move, and the Pope, holding a lighted candle in his right hand stepped over the threshold. His Holiness was the first to enter Saint Peter's in the Holy Year.

The Cardinals, Bishops and Monsignori followed, each kissing the threshold as they passed. The Pope then turning to the crowd which thronged into the Church, imparted the Apostolic Blessing.

BRITISH PREMIER'S AMENDED PLAN

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

According to newspapers an entirely new four power pact is involved. It is closely related to Mr. MacDonald's disarmament plan and has an appreciable, has categorical regard to Treaty revision than Sig. Mussolini's proposals.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY ARRESTS MADE

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CALCUTTA, April 1. THE series of arrests of Nationalists, made recently to prevent the banned meeting of the Indian Congress, has not deterred the Congress members, who to-day assembled in the tramways shed and squatted, refusing to move even when the police arrived.

They were, however, finally dispersed, 150 being arrested, including Mrs. Nellie Sengupta, the English wife of the Bengal Congress Leader, and 40 other women.

Copies of the Congress resolutions, which were taken as read, were distributed among the crowd both inside and outside the shed.

CAUSTIC SODA!

WIFE OF BUDDHIST MONK DIES IN SINGAPORE

Singapore.—Mistaking a bottle of caustic soda for one of medicated wine was said to have had fatal results for a Cantonese woman into whose death the Singapore Coroner, Mr. F. G. Bourne, enquired.

Dr. Benjamin Chew, A.M.O. at the General Hospital, gave medical evidence that on March 15, a Chinese woman, aged 31 years, to hospital. Witness discovered that the woman had been in hospital previously, on January 30 and February 25, with caustic soda poisoning. She was re-admitted on February 25 with signs of further complications and discharged on March 8 against medical advice. When she was once more admitted on March 15 she was found to be in a very poor condition and an operation was necessary to attempt to save her life. The operation, however, was of no avail.

A post-mortem examination of the body revealed that death was due to wasting away, emaciation and a stricture of the air passages, the result of caustic-soda poisoning about a month and a half previously.

At the time of her admission it was said that the poisoning had been accidental, and the woman had said, too, that she wanted to take some medicine to relieve a stomach ache but by mistake had swallowed part of the contents of a bottle of caustic soda.

Wife of a Monk.

Yang Pay Sang, a Cantonese Buddhist monk, said that the deceased was his wife.

In reply to His Honour's question, the witness stated that although he was a monk he was not confined to a monastery but lived in his own home and had a wife and children.

His Honour: Then you can't very well be a good monk.

Witness went on to say that on January 28, which was Chinese New Year Day, his wife was playing Mah Jongg, when she was aware of a stomach ache. She took what she believed to be Chinese medicine, but suddenly felt a severe pain and said that something was burning inside.

His Honour: What was in that medicine bottle?—Medicated wine. It cures stomach ache, heart ache, and other internal disorders.

The case was adjourned.

MOLLISON'S PLAN NEW FLIGHT

UNIQUE ATTEMPT BY MAN AND WIFE

LONDON, March 28.—A flight from New York of over 5,000 miles will shortly be attempted by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mollison, the British flying couple who, between them, hold more than half a dozen flight records.

Mr. Mollison reached London to-day after his successful South American flight. He said that while they did not primarily intend to attempt to beat the long distance record, they hoped to make a unique flight for a man and wife.

Mr. Mollison added that the machine was ready, and that he hoped to leave within the next two months.

Mrs. Mollison, better known as Amy Johnson, holds the England-Cape flight record, while Mr. Mollison, who was the first man to fly solo across the Atlantic from east to west, recently set up a new mark for a flight from England to South America. He took three days, ten hours, eighteen minutes for the 4,000 mile journey, beating the record set up by the giant French machine Arc-en-Ciel by no less than 2½ hours 55 minutes.—Reuter.

PERILS OF PHILIPPINES SEPARATION

GOVERNOR-GENERAL WARNS THE ISLANDS

Manila, P.I., Mar. 28.—Philippines separation from the United States is a perilous venture economically, in the opinion of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who in his annual report which was released for publication to-day warned the islands of the dangers.

Free trade with the United States, which permits the islands to sell nearly all of their sugar crop there, gave the Philippines an enormous favourable trade balance in the last year.

Colonel Roosevelt, who praised the wisdom of Philippine Legislators in balancing the budget and generally providing wise subsidies for the islands, indirectly hinted that the same wisdom might be applied to a study of the possible dangers in the independence bill that has been passed. The former Governor-General is now en route to the United States. His report to the War Department was his last official document.

NEW ZEALAND ENGLAND

BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE BY HAMMOND

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

AUCKLAND, April 1. Hitting ten sixes and thirty-three boundaries, "Wally" Hammond, the Gloucestershire all-rounder, shattered the world's record for an individual Test innings by scoring 336 not out in England's first innings against New Zealand. He was at the wickets for 318 minutes, and scored his runs out of 302.

Hammond's brilliant batting allowed Bob Wyatt to declare the England innings at 649 for 7, and at the close of play New Zealand, with all their wickets in hand, required 382 to save the innings defeat.

Hammond and Paynter added only half a dozen runs after lunch when the Lancashire player was completely deceived by a ball from Dunning, 289-3-36.

The pair had added 149 for the third wicket, of which Paynter had scored 30.

Ames helped to add 50 for the fourth wicket before falling to the wiles of Badcock, a former English county player. 347-4-28. Joined by Allen, Hammond used the long handle in a glorious manner and the pair had added 60 for the fifth wicket before the Middlesex all-rounder was clean bowled for 12.

Brown made a contribution of 13 to the sixth wicket partnership of 49, and Voce claimed sixteen of the 44 runs added for the seventh wicket.

Bowlers Demoralised.

Hammond reached his third century just before the tea interval. He had completely demoralised the bowlers, hitting ten sixes and thirty boundaries in collecting 302.

Duckworth was one and the score 500 for 7 when tea was taken.

Wyatt delayed the declaration of the innings in order to give Hammond the opportunity of breaking Don Bradman's Test record of 334, scored against England at Leeds in 1930, and the Gloucestershire batsman fulfilled all expectations.

Record Broken.

He hit out with fresh vigour and scored 94 of the 42 runs scored after tea. When Hammond had been given a great ovation by the crowd, many of whom remembered his 237 in the first Test at Christchurch, Wyatt declared the innings, setting New Zealand the task of scoring 390 to save the innings defeat.

One of the features of the innings was the wicket-keeping of K. O. James. Though not dismissing any batsman he conceded only 16 extras in a total of 588.

Hammond Creates World Record.

Rugby, April 1. By carrying his overnight score of 41 not out to 336, not out, Hammond made a world record for the highest score in any Test match. The previous record was held by Bradman, Australia, who made 234 against England at Leeds in 193

WEEK-END FOOTBALL RESULTS

POTENTIAL CHAMPIONS BEATEN BY RECREIO

CLUB HOLD NAVY: ARTILLERY LOSE TO POLICE

Several surprises were registered in the League football matches played during the week-end and the biggest was undoubtedly the defeat of South China by the Club de Recreio, in the First Division. The Royal Artillery was beaten by the Police, a comparatively weak team, while the Club, held the Navy to a draw and nearly came out victorious. The Chinese Athletics, fielding practically the same team that carried off the Second Division championship, defeated the St. Joseph's by four goals to one, and the Borderers, putting up no less than five reserves, were rather lucky to beat Kowloon by the odd goal in three.

Only one match in the Second Division was played and this also caused a surprise—the Borderers, runners-up of this Division, losing to the Lincolns by three clear goals.

In the Third Division, the Borderers trounced the R.A.S.C. to the tune of ten goals while South China just managed to beat the R.A.F.

YESTERDAY'S MATCHES

RECREIO BEAT S. CHINA

South China, potential champions of the first division were surprisingly beaten by the Club de Recreio by two goals to one in their match played at Caroline Hill. The result is probably the biggest surprise of the season, as the Portuguese team, had so far proved to be the weakest of that division. The Chinese, however, have themselves to blame for the defeat as they had many opportunities to score. They were superior in every department of the game, and continuously kept the ball in their opponents' half but could not manage to score. Santos was the outstanding player of the Portuguese team and although given only a few opportunities managed to make use of two of them by brilliant solo efforts. The defeat of the Chinese was mainly due to the fact that they were too confident of winning, as can be seen by the fact that in the second half even their backs came up to the attack. But this eventually proved their downfall.

The game started with the wind in favour of the Portuguese, but play was fairly even. Both goals were scored in the first half, and Santos came near to scoring with a well placed shot. In the other end, Tam Kung Pak tested Lawrence with several hard shots, and on one occasion struck the cross bar but the ball rebounded into play. At this stage the Chinese were on the offensive for most of the time but their forwards were wild in shooting. Play was then transferred to the other side, and from a nice pass by Gomes, Santos cut in and scored, the ball, striking the cross-bar, rebounded into the net. South China continued to have most of the play, however, but could not manage to equalise although Tam Kung Pak came very near on several occasions. It must be said also that Lawrence, the Recreio's goalkeeper, played a great game and was mainly responsible for spoiling the Chinese efforts. Once Tam shot from close range and it looked like a certain goal, but Lawrence just managed to stick out his foot and deflected the ball. Half-time arrived with the Portuguese leading by one goal.

After the interval, the Chinese had practically the whole of the game to their forwards dallied too much in front of goal. All the Portuguese forwards, with the exception of Santos and Gomes had to return to help the defence, but eventually the Chinese succeeded when Leung Tat Wing sent in a weak but well-placed shot. From then on it looked as if the Chinese would win, as the ball was always in the Portuguese half. The Chinese were so confident of success that even their backs came up over the centre line, but this soon proved their downfall. In one of the raids, Recreio's back kicked out well and sent the ball past the Chinese backs who, as stated, were over the centre line. Santos ran up to get the ball and rushed towards goal but was met by the goalkeeper and somewhat stunned by the compact. He had to leave the field for a short rest, but when he returned to the field, the same thing happened, and this time he made no mistake, thus giving the Portuguese the victory.

The Teams were: Recreio: W. Lawrence; V. Marques and G. Gutierrez; M. Oliveira, C. Figueiredo and M. Mackintosh; T. Castilho, J. Gomes, N. Delgado, J. Goncalves and F. Santos.

South China: Lim Tin Chan; Leung In Chan and Leung Wing Chiu; Wong Mee Shun, Yung Kwan, Ng Po Pui, Leung Siu Yick, Tam Kung Pak, Fung King Cheung and Leung Tat Wing.

THIRD DIVISION
BORDERERS BEAT R.A.S.C.
In the only third Division match played at Sookunpoo yesterday, the Royal Service Corps were severely trounced to the tune of ten goals by the Borderers, potential champions. The Borderers had practically the whole of the game, and were never extended at any time. Four goals were scored in the first half, and in the second they scored six.

SATURDAY'S MATCHES
ARTILLERY v. POLICE
Artillery lost to the police by three clear goals in their match played at Happy Valley. Although play did not reach a high standard, the Police are to be congratulated for beating a strong team, and, incidentally, upset all forecasts. The Gunners were badly handicapped by the absence of two of their regular forwards, Moors, and

Wood, and Edmonds, and Avery who took their places were not very good substitutes. The Gunners had a fair share of the attack and had they taken the opportunities offered they would have probably won the game.

The game started with the Police attacking, and within a few minutes O. Pile opened the scoring for them from a nice pass by T. Pile. At this stage play was even, both goals being visited in turn, but the Gunners' forwards were slow in making use of opportunities. One the other hand, the Police forwards went in for long shooting, and, after about ten minutes' play, Johnson met with success when he sent in a long shot which curved into the net. Half time arrived with the Police leading by two goals.

After the interval, the Police with the advantage of the strong winds, attacked continuously. They were unable to score, however, owing to the splendid defence put up by the Gunners, until the last minutes of the game, when, due to a misunderstanding between the backs, Stephens scored giving the Police a three goal victory.

Police:—Minty; Blackburn, Britton; Wheeler, Channing, Stephens; T. Pile, Johnston, Moss, Sheppard and C. Pile.
Artillery:—Combey; Allen, Rogers; Collier, Pardo, Harris; Cough, Edmonds, Bryant, Avery and Seal.
Referee: P. O. Dibb.

ATHLETICS v. ST. JOSEPH'S

Fielding practically the same team that carried off the Second Division Championship, the Chinese Athletics did well to beat St. Joseph's by four goals to one on the Club ground. The Saints also did not have their full team and did not have their full team and did not have their full team.

It must be said that Marques, the Saints' goalkeeper played a great game and was responsible for many beautiful saves. Early in the game, after a thrilling scramble in front of the goalmouth, Mak Sui Hon gave the Chinese the lead which they held till the interval.

In the second half, the Chinese continued to attack and within a few minutes from the start, went further ahead through Lo Chai Wan. Play was then transferred to the Chinese side for a while, and Omar had hard luck in not scoring when his shot struck the cross-bar. Immediately afterwards, however, they met with success when Delgado netted from a pass by Leonard.

After this, the Chinese were again on the offensive, and ten minutes before the end added two more goals in quick succession through Mak shui Hon and Lo Chai Wan.

Athletic:—Lui Kam Ming; Leung Yuk Tong, Lo Hon Cheong; Ho Chor Yin, Lai Kwok Chui, Ip Pang Fai; Tan Kwong Sum, Lo Chai Wan, Au Kim Fung, Mak Sui Hon and Cheong Min Wing.
St. Joseph's:—Marques; Souza, Fernandez, Hussain, Guest, Simms, Delgado, Omar, Leonard and Cas.

SATURDAY'S TRAINING GALLOPS

THE PANTHER AND VIGILANCE SHOW GOOD FINISHES AT THE COURSE

(BY "MORNING DEW")

Below will be found the training times of the new subscription griffins which were "clocked" at Happy Valley on Saturday. It will be seen that owners (or shall we say "trainers") are giving the ponies a little fast work.

The Panther, which I have previously mentioned as one of the best of the new lot, returned the best last quarter of the morning doing three quarters in 1.42.3 and finishing the last half mile in 1.05.3.

Vigilance, one of the ponies which show promise of being very much in the limelight in the Easter Meeting, also did a very excellent gallop, winding up a run over a mile and a quarter with a last quarter of 31.3, the last half mile being in 1.05, which is not bad at all.

Gold Age, running with Now's The Time also did very well.

WEEK-END CRICKET

POLICE WINS LAST LEAGUE GAME

The only league game played over the week-end was in the second division when the Police defeated the R.A.S.C. by seven wickets. The R.A.S.C. batted first and thanks to a 35 by Fowell, managed a total of 76, but the home team were far too good and scored the required runs for the first of three wickets only. Completing their innings, the Police R.C. totalled 111, Carey scoring 45 and Wynne 33.

Scores: R.A.S.C.—75 runs.
Police R.C.—111 runs.

I.R.C. v. QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

In a friendly match at Sookunpoo, the Indians severely trounced a team from Queen's College. Bating first, the home team obtained 165 runs, M. P. Madar being top scorer with 87. The students were not able to collect 35 runs in all, not one of them touching double figures.

C.S.C.C. v. DIOCESAN B.S.

The Civil Service Cricket Club were at home to the Diocesan Boys' School but were not match for to the visitors. Bating first, the schoolboys scored 101, of which Youngs was responsible for 45. McGowan took six wickets for 18 runs. The Civil Service scored 44 in reply, F. J. Ling being the only one to touch double figures, and he made 17. Hulse took 4 wickets for 20 and Sargent six for 22.

O.C.C. v. 4TH S.F.

The Craigengower O.C. visited the Navy ground at King's Park to play the 4th Submarine Flotilla, and were beaten by seven wickets. The O.C.C. batted first and started well but the "tail" proved weak and the side was all out for 121 runs, the contributions of R. Lee and S. Abbas being 52 and 31 respectively. Marham took 8 wickets for 40.

The sailors replied with 126 for four wickets. Lt. Marham (50) and E.R.A. Sparrow (31) being mainly responsible for the easy victory.

The match between K.C.C. and Hong Kong C.C. is reported elsewhere.

Referee: P. O. Wrench.

CLUB v. NAVY.

The Club had rather hard luck in not beating the Navy on the Kowloon Football Club ground, as they held the lead till almost the end of the game. The Club attacked from the start and within a few minutes, E. Strange opened the scoring for them. This lead, however, was short-lived for Warner, receiving a pass from Shirras, made a brilliant solo effort to equalise. At this stage the sailors were always on the attack, and Davis and Hudspeth were rather unlucky in not scoring when their shots struck the bars.

Play was then transferred to the sailors' side, and from a pass by

HONG KONG, APRIL 3, 1933.

BUCOLICS

ENGLISHMEN in this Colony miss more than the theatres and suchlike spectacular attractions of the West, the charm and variety of the English countryside. The history of the race, more living than that to be found in book, is written in ragstone and corpse, and to exchange these for alien surroundings is to lose an influence as tender and profound as a mother's over her child. Wherever Englishmen have planted the flag they have striven to build up a civic and social system which shall best express occidental ideals; in such surroundings we imagine we are at home, though we have to confess that concrete and steel, conventions and rules, form little but the veneer of a wood whose grain is radically different from our own. Hong Kong, in spite of its splendid buildings, remains unalterably Oriental and no amount of unbelieveable can give us the illusion that this is our home. Hence the average foreigner is never wholly free from a restlessness which, though he may not be aware of it, reacts on his physical and mental life. If his nature were able to respond to the local countryside his contentment would be more secure, but the New Territories, for all their picturesque, are strange and unfriendly to the foreign eye. There is beauty in our local hills, and the coastal scenery has a gentle grandeur that the most unresponsive person could not fail to admire, but we feel it is separated from us not only by thousands of miles, but by thousands of years. Yet one can learn to love Hong Kong and its alien landscape, as one can learn to love its people, by not expecting of it something that it cannot give us. Fully to enjoy this countryside we must approach it as strangers eager for new experiences and tolerant of the things we find, no matter how they disagree with those to which we have been accustomed. We must not be disappointed if the villages through which we pass have none of the attributes of Goldsmith's Auburn, or if the hillside up which we climb are not so fragrant with thyme and gorse. The wind that blows through the coarse grass is not the wind from the English Channel; it is a wind that has fanned the tombs of long-dead emperors, billowed a junk over the rice-fields in some remote and dormant province to which the culture of the West has not yet penetrated. Perhaps if we accepted more readily the features of our surroundings, instead of trying to shape them in accordance with our own ideas, we should be more at peace. Yet progress is a force that moves regardless of those whose efforts gave it birth; it is like the moving finger of Omar Khayyam, not one word of which it had written could man unwrite. New roads must open up the sleeping countryside to the eyes of town-dwellers; overhead cables, bringing electric power to villages whose sole unit of energy for centuries past has been the buffalo, must break the silence of the hills, and the fids of building construction must encroach on land that has never bared its bosom to anything but the ploughshare. Progress has already cast its shadow on the rural charm of the New Territories, and within the next decade populous streets will have outstretched their walls and pavements where the paddy now grows in unmoistened peace. No doubt one chapter of the history of the British Empire will record with pride the thoroughness with which we developed and modernised by our own standards. It will be a praiseworthy achievement. Hong Kong, when our ships first came here to trade, was an island inhabited by a handful of fisher folk, the most primitive of the natives. We have made it a peaceful, prosperous

ELECTRIFICATION OF KOWLOON

EFFECT OF POWER SCHEME ON LOCAL INDUSTRY

The advent of cheap power such as is promised by the high-tension electric cable installation to the farthest limits of the New Territories, through Kowloon, is certain to reduce costs and to give a powerful impetus to local industries. In fact, cheap electricity in the distant parts of the Colony will undoubtedly influence the starting of new industries which was not possible before the transmission line was erected in the New Territories.

The scheme commences at the Kowloon Tong sub-station, from whence a 6,000 volt underground cable carries the current through the Beacon Hill railway tunnel. At the north end of the tunnel an outdoor sub-station steps up the pressure to 22,000 volts and from that point the overhead transmission line commences.

Subsidiary Lines.

When completed the scheme will make electricity available in all villages and towns of importance throughout the New Territories. It comprises a 22,000 volt line to selected positions where the voltage is transformed down to 6,000. Subsidiary lines operating at this lower pressure supply the villages and market towns through transformers which reduce the voltage to 350/500 for domestic supply. The nature and size of these transformers depend upon the load demanded, and where this is small the transformer and switch-gear are mounted on a pole, but for the larger market towns sub-stations have been erected, feeding on to a low tension distributing network.

The 22,000 volt line is carried on lattice steel towers, galvanised throughout, which were supplied "knocked down" in bundles of a suitable size and weight for coolie transport and were bolted together in situ. They are of the same general design as that approved by Sir Edward Lutens for the "Grid System" at present being constructed in England and are as graceful and artistic in appearance as it is possible to make such utilitarian structures. The towers are designed to give a factor of safety of two and a half against overturning under typhoon conditions, but owing to the heavy nature of the soil in which they are erected this figure has been greatly exceeded.

Strong Foundations.

There are two main types of towers, the straight type being much lighter than those designed for positions where the line changes its direction and where, in addition to wind stresses, the pull of the wires tends to uproot the structure. The straight line type, which are only about four or five feet square at ground level, expand to nine feet square seven feet below the surface, and the foundations consist of two long flat plates parallel to the conductors, with earth well packed below them. This makes a very satisfactory foundation and has the advantage of obviating the necessity for concrete. At angle positions stronger foundations are needed, and here the four legs are carried down independently with large reinforced concrete "grillages" well buried in the ground.

The line passes over exceedingly hilly and broken country for the greater part of its length, and under these conditions it has been found impossible to standardise the spans. Over paddy fields and flat country the average span is 400 feet, but in the hills is increased to an average of 700 feet, as the line is usually on a hillside where the towers have to be erected on spurs. The tallest tower used is approximately 50 feet high.

THE TAIPO GHOST

Is the White House Haunted?

A questionable addition to the attractions of Taiipo is the existence of a ghost, if local rumours are to be believed. The ghost, who is said to have been exceptionally active of late, occupies a derelict mansion near the railway line known as the White House. This house was built several years ago by Government as a residence for the Inspector of Schools, who declined to remain there longer than a few months. It is not known why he refused to stay there, for the site is no more malarial than other places in Taiipo. Tradition has it that the ground on which the house is built is "devil haunted" and that the Inspector was driven away by the banishes. Whatever the reason for his exit, the house has remained empty ever since and the Government would be only too glad to let it for next to nothing. It commands a magnificent view of the bay, contains about eight rooms, and cost over $30,000 to build. Seldom has there been such an example of extravagance. Now it is rapidly decaying, the ground floors have been removed together with most of the glass and woodwork, and it is estimated that to put it in a habitable state of repair would cost almost a third of its original price.

Mysterious Lights.

For many years no one paid any attention to the White House, though the local Chinese always referred to it as the abode of evil, and a populous port. Yet one day the grass will grow again upon the ruins of our splendour. If for this reason alone, we should respect the countryside.

Lately, however, several people claim to have seen mysterious lights in the windows, whilst a market foki told our informant that when he was walking back to Taiipo from the Station one evening last week, he heard unearthly moans and shrieks coming from the direction of the house. Europeans living at Taiipo laugh at these stories and say that the house is only haunted by coolies who use it as a free sleeping quarter, and that the cries that are alleged to have been heard come from the coolies quarrelling among themselves. The Chinese residents are convinced that the White House is haunted, however, and nothing will induce them to go near the place after dark. They deny that coolies go there to sleep and say that they would be too terrified to sleep within twenty yards of it.

A Poltergeist?

One bold resident, who was sceptical of the rumours that were current about the Taiipo ghost, volunteered to enter the house one night, just to show the ignorant people that their tales had no foundation. He climbed into one of the rooms on the ground floor, it is said, and was about to enter the hall when a heavy object struck him on the head, half-stunning him. He angrily told "whoever was there" to come out of their hiding place, but there was no answer. The rooms were as silent as the tomb. Too shaken by the blow he had received from his unknown assailant, he decided not to explore the house and beat a hasty retreat. He has never been able to discover who threw the brick, though if he had heard of "poltergeist" he might the house remains a landmark of terror for the timid and superstitious and, since the Government have given up all hopes of ever letting it, residents are of the opinion that it should be demolished.

MONEY AND MARKETS

THE U.S. SHARE MARKET

From Asia Lands Limited

AMERICAN CAN CO.

American Can fully maintained its dominant position in the metal container industry last year. The large financial resources of the company have been further strengthened by a material contraction in expenditures, with the result that dividends probably will be continued during the early part of 1933, at least, even though not completely earned.

GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR CO.

As indicated by returns of $1.75 a share for the first nine months of 1932, Gillette experienced a material increase in earnings last year. While this showing is more than accounted for by the abolition of special obsolescence charges made against 1931 income, the company's dominant trade status is believed to have been fully maintained.

CONSOLIDATED GAS CO. OF NEW YORK

Report of Consolidated Gas Co. of New York and affiliated gas and electric companies, for the year ended December 31, 1932, shows net income of $57,678,901 after federal taxes, depreciation, interest, and preferred dividends of affiliated companies held by minority interest. This is equal, after deducting common dividends of affiliated companies and preferred dividends of Consolidated Gas Co., to $4.07 a share on 14,763,327 common shares and compares with net income of $67,515,901, or $4.94 a common share in 1931.

COLUMBIA GAS AND ELECTRIC CORP.

Earnings in 1932, after making full allowance for funds collected under suspension of disputed rates, amounted to $0.96 a common share, as compared with $1.42 in the preceding year, while coverage for fixed charges and preferred dividends declined to 1.61 from 1.99 in the earlier period. Operating expenses were out about 14.5% and depreciation and depletion also were slightly reduced. It is to be expected that all available cash will be applied to elimination of bank loans, but no change is anticipated in dividend payments on either the preferred or common shares.

STANDARD BRANDS, INC.

Standard Brands, Inc., and subsidiaries report for the year ended December 31, 1932, net profit above 1931, amounting to $15,001,401, after depreciation, federal taxes, minority interest and foreign exchange losses, but before profit and loss items. This is equivalent, after deducting $998,933 dividends paid on $7 preferred, to $1.14 a share on 12,573,998 common shares. This compares with net income of $14,542,310, equal, after deducting $858,266 dividends paid on $7 preferred, to $1.08 a share on 12,644,316 common shares in 1931. Current assets as of December 31, 1932, amounted to $38,615,790 and current liabilities were $4,246,519.

YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK

FIGURES TO END OF 1932.

The accounts for the half-year ended December 31 last of the Yokohama Specie Bank (which were approved at the general meeting of the bank held in Japan) show a net profit of 7,082,171, or 6,339,948, for the latter half of 1932, to which is added 5,677,833, brought forward from the preceding half-year. The dividend is maintained at 10 per cent. per annum, and a further sum of 1,300,000, is placed to reserve (against 1,100,000 a year ago), which brings the total fund to 119,750,000. The balance carried forward is increased to 5,853,464. Mr. K. Kodama continues his office as president. Mr. T. Takeuchi has retired from the vice-presidency, but will continue to act as a director, who was in London for many years, and acted as manager of the London branch from early in 1931 until the end of September, 1932, has been appointed vice-president. Mr. H. Kashiwagi has been elected a director.
